The North Dakotans are probably praying to be delivered from another such era of prosperity.
After Congress had voted itself an increase of salary it had not the nerve to cut out the free seed graft.
If all of the things that T. P.
Shonts says about himself are true there must be very little left to do on the canal.
It is doubtful if our Congressmen will ever earn that extra $2,500, but the President will do his best to see that they do.

Knights of Bovina.
The "Mystic Knights of Bovina" is a novel organization whose headquarters are in Texas. Bo-vinia is from Bos, Latin for ox, and it is readily seen that this is an order of cattle raisers. Its especial purpose is to put cattlemen and others in the way of having a good time when they come to attend the cattle raisers' convention and the Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth, where the headquarters are located.
The entertainment committee announce that while all the plans are in the rough yet, they would as, that the attending stockmen and visitors would have the best entertainment Fort Worth has ever put up to cattlemen. Twelve hundred dollars will be spent for music, which will include several band competitors for premiums, and string bands for general entertainment.
The dance as proposed by the Knights of Bovina will be the greatest dance the state ever had.
Another feature will be a smoker and an open house at the Knights' hall, day and night, during the entire week, for the convenience of all visitors, where they can meet, sit down and rest, deposit their bags, and get any information desired. Three sets of badges will be prepared and issued. One by the Cattle Raisers' association to be handed out to its members as they pay their dues; one for all visiting guests, such as identified with the live stock industry, and the third a neat ribbon badge for ladies only, and for all ladies, whether visitors or not, who will wear them.
The entertainment committee stated that they had $7,000 in sight to see that everybody had a good time, and they were going to see that they did have a good time.

Young Man! Young Woman!
Do you want the best? Do you want to thrive on your earning capacity? If so, take a course of Telegraphy, the Byrnes Simplified Shorthand, or Practical Bookkeeping at the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas. Read what these two men have to say of us.
Take the statements of one, and follow the example of the other:
Washington, D. C., Feb. 25, 1903.—In the National Library here, I have examined every copy system of shorthand copyrighted in this country. I have been convinced that the Byrnes Simplified is the best system in use.
F. H. Kuhns,
Asst. Postmaster General,
U. S. Treasury Department, D. C.
March 7, 1905.—Without any previous knowledge of bookkeeping or shorthand, I entered your school and studied both the Famous Byrnes Simplified Shorthand and Practical Bookkeeping, then without one day's experience as a bookkeeper, I passed the bookkeepers' examination as given under the U. S. Civil Service. Am now employed in the U. S. Treasury Dept. here. After leaving school I did not use my shorthand one day for more than two years, then I went into an office and took business dictation, transcribed my notes without the least difficulty. I will state to my young friends, the Byrnes Systems are all that is claimed for them. If you are contemplating a business course, take no other.

What the Kidneys Do.
Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong And Healthy.
All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes.
The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy they remove only a few grains. The impure matter left in the blood is the cause of this impure matter left in the blood This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and bearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.
J. G. Roe, grocer of Longview, Tex., says: "I certainly believe Doan's Kidney Pills to be an excellent remedy for kidney troubles. Having been troubled very much with scanty painful passages of the kidney secretions and inflammation and soreness of the bladder, I went to a drug store where I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, and began using them. One box gave me more satisfaction and relief than all the other medicines I had used, and there were a good many of them."
Plenty more proof like this from Jefferson, Texas people.

Letter from Oklahoma.
EDITOR JIM: As I am one on the unpaid list of your valuable paper I will send in my dollar and a few dots from this part of Oklahoma. 1906 was a prosperous year for this part of Oklahoma.
We made a crop of everything that we planted. Wheat made from 10 to 30 bushels. Oats 40 to 75 Corn 40 to 60 per acre. Cotton made from one-half to over a bale per acre. I made 2,300 of seed cotton on one acre.
We got a good price for all of our crops except wheat and oats.
We lost a great per cent of oats and wheat from too much rain before we could get them threshed.
Corn is a good price this year, selling at 40 cents per bushel. David son will ship as much or more corn this season than it did last year. The worst drawback we farmers have is the scarcity of labor. We can't get hands to save what we raise. One man can make more stuff than five can gather.
There is lots of cotton to pick up up here yet. The price of picking is running from $1.25 to $1.50 a hundred, and can't get hands at that. Its up to the people in the West to solve the labor question, and the only way out, as I see it, is to leave off the cotton that they can't gather with their own force.
Then, and not until then, can they realize when they should for their labor. I have a neighbor that made 21 bales of cotton on 30 acres.
He did not have any picking force, had to hire the most of it picked, and when he paid his pickers and rent he realized about $12 dollars per bale for his cotton. So you see there is not much in cotton managed that way. We can raise all kinds of feed crops to perfection and this is the best hog country I ever saw, and we don't have any state on fine hogs. We can show hogs with any one. The Poland China is the choice of this country. I have sold some and other kind of hog here. We make them net from 400 to 500 pounds at one year old. I don't think there is anything that looks better for a farmer than to see a nice bunch of Poland China pigs, a flock of Plymouth chickens and a lot of Bronze turkeys around his barn.
For fear I might worry the good editor I will cut my communication short.
Will say to Bro. Stoney that the weather conditions in the West have gone through a considerable change. We are having lots more rain than wind now. J. Mott, Davidson, Oklahoma.

Through a Letter Written by Son the Many Times Millionaire In-Board Holding Session at New York City.
New York, Feb. 8.—Thirty-two millions of dollars' worth of income bearing securities was the gift of John D. Rockefeller, through his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., announced to the general education board when it assembled for a special meeting in this city Thursday afternoon.
For general educational purposes throughout the country is given as the purpose of the donation, the largest single prize ever handed out for such purposes.
Mr. Rockefeller previously had given the board $11,000,000 for the same work. His contributions now amount to $43,000,000.
The general education board apparently was not prepared for this gift, which was announced simply in this letter:
"New York, Feb. 6, 1907.—The General education board, New York: Gentle men: My father authorizes me to say that on or before April 1, 1907 he will give to the general board income-bearing securities, the present market value of which is about thirty-two million dollars, ($32,000,000), one-third to be added to the permanent endowment of the board, two-thirds to be applied to such specific objects within the corporate purposes of the board, as either you or I may from time to time direct.
Any remainder not so designated at the death of either to be added also to the permanent endowment of the board.
Very truly,
"JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR." Most of the members of the board were surprised at the announcement and amazed at the size of the gift. Dr.
Buttrick, the secretary, said he did not know the gift was to be made until he received the letter. Other members did not know of the donation until the letter was read.
John D. Rockefeller, Jr., remained throughout the session of the board.
A reply of thanks was sent.

Henry Examined.
Congressman Testified Before the Investigation Committee Monday.
The first witness Monday before the Bailey investigation committee.
He stated he had been a member of congress for ten years. He was partner of Stribling from March, 1895, until his election in 1896. He said Henry & Stribling were connected with the Waters-Pierce penalty suits. He said he was assistant attorney general under the Hogg administration, and while he was living in Texas he was directed to go to Waco and investigate alleged violations of the anti-trust laws.
He said he conferred with the grand jury, which decided to indict about nine Standard and Waters-Pierce officials. He resigned as assistant attorney general and moved to Waco. At that time Taylor was county attorney.
Taylor agreed to bring suit against the Waters-Pierce company and turned the proceedings over to Henry & Stribling to handle the matter on a division of costs. Witness stated hard work was required to get up the evidence. "We continued in the case until we were informed out of it by County Attorney C. M. Thomas," said Henry. "That was the last day of October, 1900." Henry said he agreed with Thomas that criminal indictments against Pierce should not be dismissed. This ended the conference. The witness said he had read over testimony of C.
F. Thomas that the latter objected to the fee of $3000 for Henry & Stribling.
Henry stated emphatically that he never knew of him objecting to the fee until Thomas issued a newspaper statement Aug. 8, 1900, about ninety-five days after the conference. He said this Thomas statement severed their personal relations. Henry had a letter of Oct. 13, 1900, to Henry & Stribling from Cullen F. Thomas, which was read by the clerk. This letter asked Henry & Stribling to withdraw from the case and offered to compromise on the fee.
Thomas believed that they could not successfully continue the case because of estranged relations.
Henry read the letter of reply to Thomas in which they declined the offer of Thomas and preferred to continue in the case under the old contract. Witness stated they proceeded to get ready to try the case and worked overtime. He said that Thomas declared he would not come to the trial to confer with him over the telephone and he (Henry) refused to talk to him.
He said a friend of Thomas tried to intercede, but they refused to "stale," "arm." When the case came to trial in October, 1900, Thomas appeared in court and Henry & Stribling promptly withdrew, leaving the courthouse.
Henry read a newspaper letter by George Clark in which the writer said the only obstacle in the way of settlement was the criminal indictment against Pierce, which Thomas refused to withdraw.
Henry denied emphatically that he had parted in anger with Thomas at the Pacific hotel. Witness declared he knew nothing of the $1500 draft or the $1,800 voucher. He had read about them in the papers and said he wrote a letter to Henry & Stribling to this effect: "I wish to say that I never received any money from Pierce, the Waters-Pierce Oil company or any attorney or agent," said Henry.

Household Necessity.
I would almost as soon think of running my farm without implements as without Hunt's Lightning Oil. Of all the implements I have ever used, for both cuts it is absolutely wonderful. I re-
